

Comedic/Inspirational Keynote Speaker Rosemary Watson. . .

has been blowing hot air, of one kind or another, into a microphone for a very very long time and is excited about the possibility of doing the same for your next special event, conference, cult gathering, etcetera!

A multi-faceted entertainer, Rosemary has performed her vocal impressions at The Kennedy Center (alongside Tony Bennett, Julie Andrews and Tina Fey) and on ABC's The View. She has appeared as a series host and guest on HGTV and The Discovery Channel. She has sung with her jazz trio on The Queen Latifah Show and has entertained at hundreds of beautiful venues around California and Vegas including The Paris Hotel & The Bellagio.

She has made numerous live appearances wowing large corporate crowds as both a Hillary Clinton and Melania Trump impersonator. She hopes to do neither ever again.

A seasoned voice over artist, Rosemary has produced tens of thousands of audio tracks out of her home studio for companies around the world as well as for shows like: The Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon, The Howard Stern Show, David Letterman and Late Night With Jimmy Kimmel.

A chance letter to her idol Carol Burnett in 2012 culminated in a unique friendship. In the spirit of 'paying it forward', the legend has since gone out of her way to champion Ms. Watson's work as an entertainer, calling her 'one of her favorite comedians'.

As a KEYNOTE Rosemary uses this extraordinary event, as well as her own struggles with stage-fright and insecurities, to offer inspirational ideas around the topics of:

Giving YOURSELF permission to GO BOLD - Using your intuition

Killing Perfectionism The Joy Killer - Writing to a Mentor

The Magic of Making Up Your Mind.

AND. . . she does it using hilarious quips in many different voices!

As a writer, improviser and creative nut, she also enjoys coming up with a topic of your choosing!
